High Point Police Department to Host Annual Community Day

HIGH POINT, NC – This year’s High Point Police Department Community Day will feature Fall fun for the entire family. The free event will include a costume contest, outdoor games, bounce houses and lots of candy.

When: Saturday, October 28

Where: Washington Terrace Park
101 Gordon Street, High Point

Time: 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Community Day is one of the largest annual events organized by HPPD officers and employees. It is an opportunity for community members and families to meet many of the men and women who keep their community safe.

This year’s event will feature a Costume Contest. Judges will be walking around the park, taking note of their favorite costumes. The winners will be announced at 11:30 a.m. and each one will receive a gift card. The costume contest will be divided into three age groups – five years old and younger, 6-10 and 11-15.

Officers and volunteers will serve a free hot dog lunch beginning at 10:30 a.m. They will also hand out candy to children who participate in the games.

Other activities include a demonstration from the HPPD’s K9 Unit and a display from the HPPD’s SWAT team.

A full schedule of events and a map can be found here.
