INCIDENT TYPE – TRAFFIC FATALITY

HIGH POINT – On Tuesday, September 19, 2017, at approximately 3:30 PM High Point Police responded to West English Road near Venable Court for a traffic crash involving two vehicles. First responders arrived and discovered a moped had been involved in a collision with a Cadillac CTS. Traffic Investigators determined that the moped attempted to turn from the center lane into a parking lot subsequently turning in front of the Cadillac which resulted in the collision. First responders on scene performed life-saving measures on the driver of the moped who was eventually transported to Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center suffering from severe head trauma.

The driver of the Cadillac did not sustain any injuries during the collision and will not face any charges related to the crash.

In the evening hours of Tuesday, September 19, 2017, the High Point Police Department learned that the driver and sole occupant of the moped involved in the earlier collision had succumbed to his injuries at Baptist Hospital.

The victim of the crash was: Henry Simon (B/M/62) of High Point

This is the 9th traffic fatality in High Point for 2017
